May 29, 2009

Join Our Team of Security and
Management Professionals for This
Exciting and Productive Presentation

Seminar Focus

- Workplace Behaviors and Consequences
- Identifying Non-Value-Added Activities
- Selection Processes and Due Diligence
- Handling Terminations and Outplacement
- Applications for Physical Security

Ideal For All Professionals

- Security
- Loss Prevention
- Human Resources
- Training & Development
- Operations & General Management
- Consultants
- Those responsible for the 'behaviors' of others

Why?

Accomplished security and business leaders share an important characteristic required of every professional:

A partnership to insure the application of best practices.

Our seminar will explore ways to achieve that goal and also equip participants with take-home skills so as to return organizational value ...

... immediately!

About the Seminar Content:

Lost productivity, legal expenses, property damage, diminished public image, poor service, and increased security combined with other factors can be measured in very hard dollars. ALL COSTS

We'll examine these issues and their consequences in detail, and we will also offer proactive techniques for managing:

- Lean Principals
- Workplace Violence
- The Cost of a Bad Hire
- Down-Sizing - Terminations
- Protection of People and Capital Assets

About the Presenters:

ASIS International is an organization of Security Professionals.

Our 'faculty' for this day is comprised of several accomplished executives representing our Albany Chapter.

Each is well prepared to match their experiences with your organizational needs and specific concerns.

The schedule of events will also include round-table discussions with our faculty and other Certified Protection Professionals!
